Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On August 14, 2007, Learning Tree International, Inc. (“Learning Tree”) received an Additional Staff Determination Letter from the Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) that, as a result of Learning Tree’s delay in filing its Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 29, 2007, Learning Tree’s securities could be subject to delisting from the Nasdaq. Nasdaq has requested that Learning Tree present its views with respect to this additional deficiency to the Nasdaq Listing and Hearing Review Council (the “Council”) in writing no later than August 21, 2007.

Learning Tree has been working with Nasdaq concerning the delay in filing Learning Tree’s Forms 10-Q for the quarters ended December 29, 2006 and March 30, 2007. On August 1, 2007, Learning Tree filed its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 29, 2006. Learning Tree has requested additional time for filing its Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 30, 2007.

There can be no assurance that the Council will grant a request for continued listing.

Except for historical information contained herein, the matters addressed in this press release are forward-looking statements. Please do not put undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, since they are based on key assumptions about future risks and uncertainties. Although Learning Tree believes that its assumptions are reasonable, inevitably some will prove to be incorrect. As a result, Learning Tree’s actual future results can be expected to differ from those in the discussion that follows, and those differences may be material. Learning Tree is not undertaking any obligation to update forward-looking statements.

In order to help the reader assess the major risks in Learning Tree’s business, Learning Tree has identified many, but not all, of these risks in Exhibit 99.1, “Risk Factors” to Learning Tree’s Annual Report on Form 10-K (“Exhibit 99.1”). Please read that exhibit carefully. Some of the factors discussed in Exhibit 99.1 that could affect Learning Tree include: risks associated with the timely development, introduction, and customer acceptance of Learning Tree’s courses; competition; international operations, including currency fluctuations; changing economic and market conditions; technology development and new technology introduction; efficient delivery and scheduling of Learning Tree’s courses; adverse weather conditions, strikes, acts of war or terrorism and other external events; and attracting and retaining qualified personnel.
