Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On June 17, 2013, Learning Tree International, Inc. (the “Company”) increased the size of the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) from seven to eight members, and elected Mary C. Collins as a Class I Director to fill the new board seat. Mrs. Collins will stand for re-election at the next annual shareholder meeting along with the other Class I directors.

Mary Collins, age 57, previously worked for the Company from September 1975 to February 2007, in various capacities, most recently serving as the Chief Administrative Officer and Corporate Secretary. Since February 2007, she has served on the boards of various charitable organizations while running the day to day operations of a 2,500 acre farm. Mrs. Collins has also served as a paid consultant to the Company working on special projects since 2012.

There is no arrangement or understanding between Mrs. Collins and any other person pursuant to which Mrs. Collins has been selected as a director. Mrs. Collins has served as a consultant of the Company and the Company plans to continue to engage Mrs. Collins as a consultant from time to time. Mrs. Collins has not engaged in any transaction exceeding $120,000 with the Company. Mrs. Collins is married to Dr. David Collins, Chairman and CEO of the Company and together they control approximately 32% of the Company’s outstanding shares.

On June 18, 2013, the Company issued a press release announcing the appointment of Mrs. Collins to the Board. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward Looking Statements

Except for historical information contained herein, the matters addressed in this press release are forward-looking statements. Please do not put undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, since they are based on key assumptions about future risks and uncertainties. Although Learning Tree believes that its assumptions are reasonable, inevitably some will prove to be incorrect. As a result, Learning Tree's actual future results can be expected to differ from those in this release, and those differences may be material. Learning Tree is not undertaking any obligation to update forward-looking statements. In order to help the reader assess the major risks in Learning Tree's business, Learning Tree has identified many, but not all, of these risks in Item 1A, “Risk Factors” in Learning Tree's Annual Report on Form 10-K (“Item 1A”). Please read Item 1A carefully. Some of the factors discussed in Item 1A that could affect Learning Tree include the following: risks associated with the timely development, introduction, and customer acceptance of Learning Tree's courses; competition; international operations, including currency fluctuations; changing economic and market conditions; technology development and new technology introduction; efficient delivery and scheduling of Learning Tree's courses; adverse weather conditions, strikes, acts of war or terrorism and other external events; and attracting and retaining qualified personnel.
